Where Phones Sleep

Kitchen charging station signs and fridge pages,
so every device in the house sleeps out of the bedroom.

TWO MINUTES BEFORE YOU PRINT

One shelf in the kitchen. Every device sleeps there. Yours goes first.

A bedtime phone battle is often really about where the phone goes. So take the question away. Pick one spot outside the bedrooms, put the chargers there, and make it the place every device in the house sleeps, the grown ups' phones included. This pack gives that spot its signs and puts the habit on the fridge, where everyone can see it.

SET IT UP TONIGHT

1. Pick the spot
   A shelf or a tray near a socket, in the kitchen or the hallway. Somewhere you pass at bedtime.
2. Set the docking times
   One for each person, grown ups too. Write them on the charging line and put it on the fridge.
3. Put your phone there first
   Dock yours before you say goodnight, so the rule is for everyone.
4. When it slips
   No lecture. "Phones sleep in the kitchen. Let's take it down together." Then start again tomorrow.

AGES 4 TO 7 · PEBBLE

Start before there is a phone. The tablet and the games controller can sleep on the shelf too. Make it part of bedtime: carry them down together and say goodnight to them.

AGES 8 TO 10 · BLOOP

Decide it together. Ask, "Where should our devices sleep?" Let your child choose the spot and help set the docking times, then write them on the charging line.

WHY OUT OF THE BEDROOM?

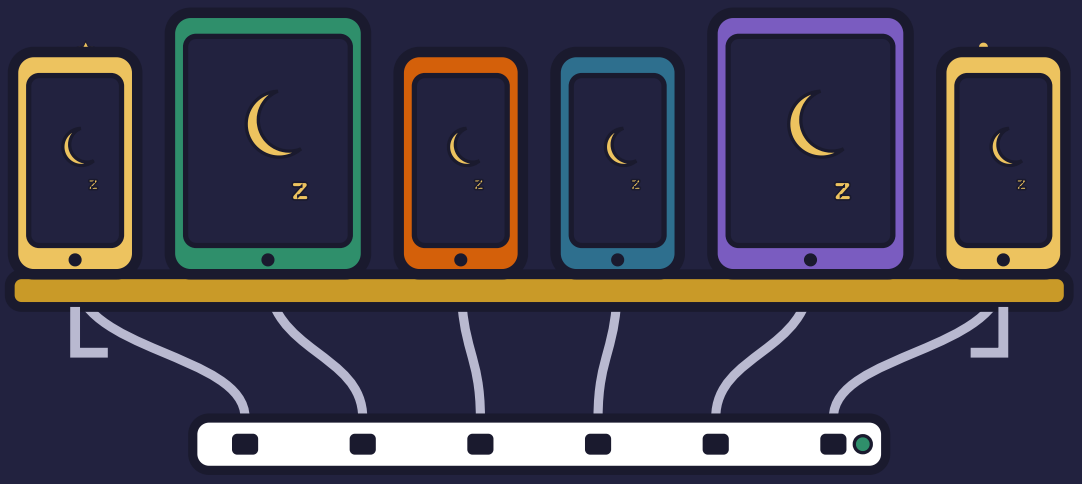

On sleep, the UK Chief Medical Officers' advice for parents and carers (February 2019) says: "Leave phones outside the bedroom when it is bedtime." We have kept to that advice and we claim nothing stronger. This pack does not promise better sleep or behaviour. It gives one family habit a home in your kitchen, where everyone can see it.

UK Chief Medical Officers' advice for parents and carers on children and young people's screen and social media use, published with their commentary on a systematic map of reviews, Department of Health and Social Care, 7 February 2019, gov.uk. This pack is not endorsed by the UK Chief Medical Officers or the UK Government.

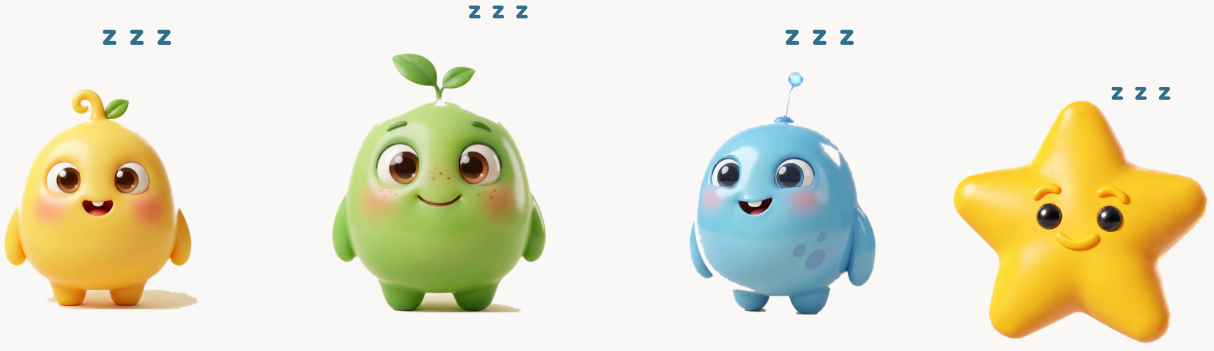

Print the signs and labels on card if you have it. Laminate the charging line and tonight's screen plan, or slip them into a plastic sleeve, and write on them with a dry wipe pen, so they last all year.

OUR CHARGING STATION

Devices sleep here

Goodnight phones. Goodnight tablets.
See you after breakfast.

Everyone docks by _____ , grown ups too.

CUT OUT, FOLD, STAND BY THE CHARGERS

FOLD HERE · THIS SIDE FACES THE OTHER WAY

IN OUR HOUSE

Phones charge in the kitchen, not the bedroom.

Print on card. Cut round the dashed edge, fold on the middle line, and stand it up like a tent. A little tape inside the base stops it sliding.

FOR THE FRIDGE · GROWN UPS TOO

IF A NIGHT SLIPS

No ticks taken away, no telling off. Walk it down to the shelf together and start again tomorrow.

CUT OUT · PRINT ON CARD OR STICKER PAPER

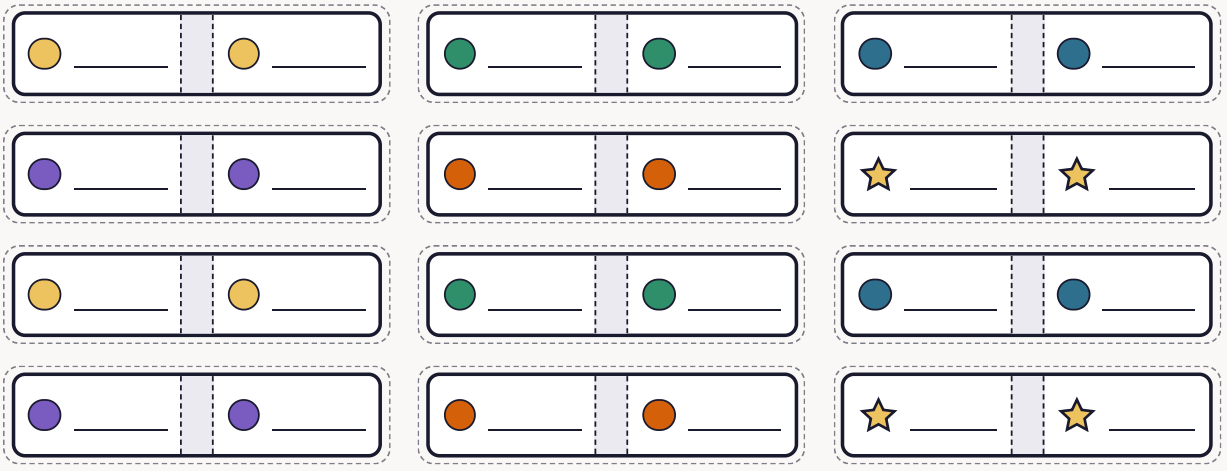

Charging spot labels

One for each person. Write the name, stick it on the shelf or the tray, and every device has its own bed.

Cable flags

Match the colour to the label. Fold the flag round the lead at the dashed band and glue the two ends together, so nobody takes the wrong charger.

WIPE CLEAN · PLAN IT AT TEATIME

Tonight's screen plan

Date _____

Plan it at teatime and the timer does the reminding. When it goes, the screen goes down. One star is five minutes, so colour a star for each five.

THE GUIDED CHILDHOOD PASSPORT

Your Passport stickers

Where Phones Sleep belongs on the Pebble page (ages 4 to 7) or the Bloop page (ages 8 to 10), under the doing, in the Guided Childhood Passport. When your family has used the pack, tick it in the Go further strip on that page, then cut out the sticker and stick it on. The big one fits the stage page and the small one fits the fold out passport.

PRINT THIS PAGE ON STICKER PAPER, OR ON PLAIN PAPER WITH A GLUE STICK

The Guided Childhood app has a charging shelf in the kitchen too, and the Planet Friends put their phones on it every night.

No Passport yet? Look for the Guided Childhood Passport in the same Etsy shop: five stage pages for ages 4 to 16, each one stamped when the talk, the doing and the check are done.

A FREE GIFT FOR YOUR FAMILY

As a thank you, the full Guided Childhood Starter Pack is yours free: the star chart, the jobs that earn the stars, and a whole booklet of things to do away from a screen. Pop your email in at the address below and it is yours.
