EVERY BOOK COUNTS, COMICS TOO

My reading log

Colour the stars when you finish. Five stars means you would make your best friend read it. One star means at least you gave it a go!

Page full? Brilliant. Print another one and keep the streak going. Ten finished books in a year is a genuinely big deal.

SPELLING TESTS, TIMES TABLES, SATS, MUSIC GRADES

My exam and revision planner

Here is the secret: eight short sessions beat one giant panic. Twenty minutes, tick a box, go play. Your brain does the rest while you are off having fun.

DIGI'S CORNER

Homework first, then screens guilt free

That is the whole trick. Do the work, tick the box, and every minute of screen time after it is properly yours. No nagging, no guilt, no arguments.

THE DEAL IN THREE STEPS

1. Write it in the tracker. The moment homework is set, it goes on the page, not in your worry pile.
2. Do it, tick it. Short and focused wins. Twenty minutes of real work beats an hour of staring.
3. Enjoy your screens. Earned time is the best time. When it ends, end well: save, breathe, off.

FOR THE GROWN UPS

If your family has a screen deal, this planner is its best friend. A ticked homework box is proof the deal was kept, so screen time starts relaxed instead of contested. One glance, no interrogation.

GUIDED CHILDHOOD

Thank you

Your year is planned. Print a fresh homework page whenever one fills up, and keep the planner where your child can reach it without asking.

A FREE GIFT FOR YOUR FAMILY

As a thank you, the full Guided Childhood Starter Pack is yours free: the star chart, the jobs that earn the stars, and a whole booklet of things to do away from a screen. Pop your email in at the address below and it is yours.

guidedchildhood.com/etsy-bonus

Made by Justin at Guided Childhood, a dad who got tired of the screen time fight. If this planner makes the school week a little calmer, a kind review on Etsy helps another family find it.
